

Charger Students of the Month – May, 2010

Raina Little was selected as the female Charger of the Month for May. Raina is the senior daughter of Todd and Julie Little of Dallas City. At Illini West Raina was named Senior of the Month for January, worked as a Primary Aide as part of the Child Care Operations class, helped with numerous blood drives and has been an active participant during Homecoming Week activities. Raina was also a member of the volleyball team for 4 years where during this past season she was a member of the Sherrard All Tournament Team and a member of the West Central All Conference Team. Away from school, Raina is a member of the First Christian Church in Lomax where she actively participates in the vacation bible school program. She is an active member of the Girl Scout Troop #161 in Dallas City and has served as a volunteer junior high volleyball coach at Dallas City Elementary. Raina's future plans include attending Southeastern Community College to pursue a degree in radiology, specializing in sonogramming.

Travis Hobby was selected as the male Charger of the Month for May. Travis is the senior son of David and Susan Hobby of LaHarpe. While a student at Illini West, Travis has been a member of FFA and participated in the vocational coop program. As a member of the FFA, Travis has served as both president and vice president and worked at the Ag plot. Travis has participated in football for 4 years and he has been a captain, West Central All Conference selection, member of the Quincy Herald Whig, Macomb Voice and Hawkeye All Area teams and will be representing Illini West in the KHQA Do or Die Bowl in June. Away from school, Travis is a member of the Agape and Union Church youth group and the Durham Dukes and Duchesses 4H Club. Travis also volunteers yearly at the Fred Gibb Car Show. Travis' future plans include attending Spoon River College and receiving an Associate's Degree in Diesel Tractor Technology.
